

Artist profile: Lynda Strickland

I was born on the Island but left to study Dance Theatre & Notation at The Laban Centre in London. I returned to the Island to work and bring up my children in 2002. Having studied Art at school and sculpture whilst in London I embarked on numerous courses in oils and acrylics and regular life drawing classes. I now enjoy working in a number of media and most recently have been experimenting with watercolour inks.

