

Artist profile: Becky Samuelson

I have been painting for over thirty years based from my studio gallery in St Helens on the Isle of Wight. As well as the Isle of Wight Art Club and Bembridge Art Society, I am a member of 'The Society of Women Artists'. Much of my inspiration comes from our amazing Island countryside with its huge diversity and great natural light providing me with constant inspiration. I particularly love painting seascapes and landscapes in acrylic, oil and watercolour.

My work has been exhibited widely including annual exhibitions with The Society of Women Artists & Art for Youth, London plus through galleries, private exhibitions and IOW Open Studios. I am very happy to undertake commissions. Please do contact me to discuss your thoughts and ideas or come and see me in my studio, which is in our garden and open for visits.

I had a wonderful 25 years teaching in Adult Education running courses and workshops and contributing to the Leisure Painter Magazine but am now solely concentrating on painting. I am represented by DDFA Licensing and have also had prints and greeting cards published through Medici Galleries, Noel Tatt and Art Marketing.
