How it will work: Your artwork will be displayed on the IWAC Gallery for the period of the exhibition. Any sales enquiries from interested parties (we will be asking for a phone number to encourage genuine enquiries) will initially come to The Gallery. Only seemingly genuine emails/ contacts will be forwarded to the Artist.

IWAC request a 10% commission if you sell a picture. Please inform Nicky, same email as below. If you are successful in selling, IWAC commission payment details will be sent to you at the time.

1. IWAC reserves the right to refuse any picture without stating a reason. Only Artists with Exhibiting Rights may participate.
2. All work must be original, and if a photograph is used as reference, it must have been taken by the artist or from a copyright free source.
3. Any sales enquiries will be emailed direct to the Artist from the Gallery Manager, no Artists contact details will be published or given to third parties. Any transactions are solely between the Artist and the Buyer and the Artist is wholly responsible for all transactions, meaning packing, despatching and taking money. IWAC take no responsibility for any disputes of any kind.
4. A generic copyright logo will automatically be added to your image.
5. Remove glass from picture, before photographing.
6. IWAC standard of framing to be adhered to.
7. Submitted work must not have been hung in an immediately preceding IWAC exhibition and then the work must only have been hung once before in an IWAC exhibition
